May is National Bike Month! Bike to Work Week: May 17-21, 2010

Greensboro, NC – Next week is Bike to Work Week. The Piedmont Triad Council of Governments is working with number of partners in the region to celebrate May is National Bike Month; events can be viewed at <http://www.pedpower.org/Events.htm>. There are movies, rides, morning rest stops for bicyclists, and other events planned all throughout May for new or returning bicyclists. Many events are concentrated during Bike to Work Week May 17-21. A sample of the events over the next week includes:

May 16 – Bicycling in Greensboro Member's Ride, Center City Park, Greensboro

May 16 – Ride for Nicholas Weis, Elon

May 17-21 – Refueling Stations for bike commuters in Greensboro in different locations everyday of the week (see www.pedpower.org/bikemonth.htm)

May 19 – Mayor's Ride, Biscoe

May 19 – Ride of Silence in downtown Greensboro and Winston-Salem

May 22 – Gears and Cheers Ride near Gibsonville

The Piedmont Triad Council of Governments pedestrian and bicycle program works to educate cyclists with safety information, promote events and provide direct educational services to cyclists of all skill levels.
